

Professional Writing Help:

Are you a writer, director or producer? Do you need some professional help with your screenplay, spec screenplay or other writing project?

I'm Jeff Zedlar, CEO, of The Transcription Studio. My primary business goal is to get your work that falls within one of our 6 services.

Even if you don't have work and can help us find some significant account, I'm willing to barter.

In the pursuit of that, I'm more than willing help or advise you in your personal creative work.

I'm also a professional writer, WGA member, and I was fortunate enough to sell my very first spec screenplay for 300k/550k.

I can especially help in the fields of Sci-Fi, Supernatural, or Military themed mind benders. Don't hesitate to inquire:
